QUERY TWENTY.

ANDREWS. A. M. P. Nov. 10, 1921. "Virginia Herald," 1st Wm. Armstrong Crozier, vol. 5, gives: Robert, son of Moss and Tabitha Cook Andrews, and great grandson of John Andrew, who came from Lowestoft, England, to Maryland, Richard County. Robert was born in Pennsylvania, was tutor in family of Maure Page, professor at Williams and Mary, 1759. He was private secretary to General Nelson at Yorktown, 1781. Represented Williamsburg, 1788 at State Convention; member Legislature 1798; married (1) Elizabeth Bland, (2) Mary Blair.

John Andrews, Old Rappahannock, Va., 1676, bought 139 acres of land on the south side of the Rappahannock River. His son John, born about 1650 in Essex County, Virginia, died 1701, and his son John, born about 1711, died 1771. In turn, his son James (2), born 1761 in Virginia, died May 4, 1816, in Lexington, Old Fluvanna County, Georgia, had several children. James Garret Andrews of Washington, Wilkes County, Georgia was a son. Full history of this Andrews family from this John, who died in 1816 will be found in Good, Virginia, Counties.

See Neill's Virginia Carolanum, page 175. John Andrews, a prominent Colonist in 1630-70, had a son, William, 1651, and perhaps son, Robert.

And 123 HILL-RUSSELL.—March 9, 1930, J. T. H.

William Andrews (1) came to Accomac County, Virginia, 1670. Maj. William Andrews' wife married three times—(2) William Smart, (3) Col. Edward Hill, of "Shirley." Col. Edward Hill settled in Charles City County, Virginia, and died 1699. He built Shirley, one of the show places of Virginia, and left it to his son, Edward (2), born 1657, died 1700, who married (1) Elizabeth Williams from England—said to be very beautiful—and had daughter Elizabeth (2) and son Edward (3), who died without issue. Elizabeth (2) married Edward Carter and Shirley passed to Carter family. Edward as descended from Robert or King Carter of Virginia.

QUERY TWENTY AND ONE HUNDRED THIRTY-THREE.

ANDREWS—Captain Edmond Scarborough, Justice Accomac, 1631-2; House of Burgesses, 1629-31-32, married Hanner ———; died 1632 or 1635. His son (1) Charles (afterward Sir Charles), born 1616, entered Caius College, Cambridge, 1639; became physician to Charles II. James II and William III; member of Parliament, knighted 1669; died 1693; buried at Cranford, Middlesex; had son Charles (2), Captain Edmond's son, Colonel Edmond, member of House of Burgesses for Northampton County, Virginia; Speaker of the House 1645; justice, Sheriff and surveyor general of Virginia; died 1670. His son (1) Colonel Charles, of Accomac, died 1703; married daughter of Richard Burnett, (2) Captain Edmond, Jr., (3) Littleton, (4) Mathilda, who married Colonel John West, of Accomac, (5) Tabitha Smart married Richard Hill. Mary Andrews' mother was Mary Charlton, daughter of Stephen Charlton. They had daughter Tabitha, who married John Custis.

Query—Is William Hill Andrews, of Buncombe County, North Carolina, son of this Mary Scarborough Andrews? Did they live at Raleigh, N. C., or in Buncombe County?—A. M. P.
